

CITY SUED FOR WOMAN'S INJURY

CATHERINE CALLAHAN ASKS $7,500 DAMAGES FOR INJURIES SUSTAINED BY A FALL ON A SIDEWALK.

Suit for $7,500 damages was filed in the circuit court Monday by Mrs. Catherine Callahan against the city of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Callahan seeks this amount as damages incurred by a fall on Eighth street, near High, last November, when, she says, her ankle, knee and hip were sprained and her spinal column was injured.

The suit is brought by Attorney W. H. A. Renner. Some time ago Mrs. Callahan presented a claim to the city council for the amount asked for in the suit. She bases her claim upon the condition of the sidewalk where the accident occurred.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN MAKING READY

The law passed at the last session of the legislature provides that each hunter's license must be accompanied by three deer tags. As soon as a deer is killed, one of these tags must be detached from the license, signed and dated and tied to the carcass. It is unlawful to have a carcass in possession without a tag on it.

The licenses that were issued from January to June, before the new law went into effect, did not have the deer tags attached. However, tags have been supplied to all county clerks and any hunter may secure these tags by applying to the county clerk.

The game warden's office is preparing a code of signals, which will be sent to all gun clubs and distributed to all deer hunters of the state. There will be signals for the hunter being lost and for those in distress. Several of the gun clubs of the state suggested that this be done and W. L. Finley has taken steps to make the signals the same all over the state. The Klamath, Oregon, club has adopted a code of signals and they will be in effect from the opening of the season.

BABY SUCCUMBS AFTER SICKNESS

THREE-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF RALPH VAUGHN HAS BEEN SICK FOR SEVERAL DAYS PAST

After being critically ill for several days, Bessie Vaughn, aged 3½ years, died at 10 o'clock last night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaughn, at the corner of Walnut and Fourth streets.

The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence.

KLAMATH ROADS ARE MUCH PRAISED

Only a short stop was made at Bend, the party driving through to Crescent. The roads along this route are in fine condition with the exception of about 15 miles out of Bend where they are very dusty and contain a deal of lava rock.

After passing the Lava Buttes, however, the road for a distance of 150 miles south are ideal for motoring, and the speed limit can be made to suit the driver. From Crescent to Harriman Lodge by way of Fort Klamath, was made in less than five hours.

Upon leaving the Lodge the two parties drove to Crater Lake for a two-day stop. The roads through the government reservation were found to be in fine shape, with the exception of a few snow banks, encountered near Camp Arant. By this time, however, the snow has entirely disappeared and the trip may be made in complete comfort. The accommodations at the Lake are of the best and every care and attention is given the visitor for his pleasure and comfort.

Leaving the Lake the drive to Medford was found to be very pleasant. A little road work by the county supervisors would greatly improve some parts of this road and save the county money in repairs that will be necessary within the next few months.

The time to save a road is when wear first begins to show. Small chuck holes properly taken care of when they first start will save many dollars later.

From Medford to Grants Pass the roads are also in fair condition. After the motorists leave Grants Pass, though, bound north over the much talked of Pacific highway, Oregon's connecting link between California on the south and Washington on the north, the troubles begin. The worst that can be said about the greater portion of the highway into Portland is the best. This report seems to be the opinion of nine-tenths of the motorists that make the trip north over the Pacific highway. The motorists of this particular party say that Cow Creek Canyon road is a disgrace to any civilized community, and that an owner will do more damage to a car and tires through this short stretch than he will over three hundred miles of the eastern Oregon road.

THINGS LOOK GOOD IN KLAMATH

will be light, but the timothy crop will be satisfactory and the outlook for grain is favorable.

The Klamath Falls Creamery produced during June 22,990 pounds of butter, and the Merrill Creamery produced 9,569 pounds; this was sold principally to Sacramento dealers at 25c per pound. The price paid farmers for butter fat was 35c per pound. Ten cars of livestock were shipped out during the month.

A small crew was engaged in strengthening and cleaning the laterals and in repairing small structures.

Construction Construction work was somewhat delayed by rain, but the weather was generally favorable. Work was carried on throughout the month on the North and South Poe, Griffith, and Nuss Lake laterals, the average force on this contract being 74 men and 120 horses. Government forces were engaged in the building of various lateral structures. The traction ditcher worked the entire month on the deepening of the Hensley drain and good progress was made.

Dancing Party Next.—Invitations are being issued by the White Pelican hotel management and guests for a dance to be given at the hotel. A full orchestra has been engaged to furnish music, and a big time is predicted.

Carried Pistol.—Charged with stealing a pistol, Charles Edmondson, arrested at Fort Klamath, was brought here late Monday afternoon by Constable Zumbrum to serve a jail sentence.

Buy Thresher.—Steve Griffith and V. R. Evans of Poe Valley have purchased a threshing outfit here. They will operate extensively in the Poe Valley country.

To California "U".—Clifford Harter left Monday for Berkeley, where he will enter the University of California. Harter graduated from the Merrill High school this year, and has a record in Klamath county as a track athlete.

Schaeffers Leave.—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schaeffer and daughter, Antonette Schaeffer, who has been employed in the postoffice for the past two years, left this morning for Goldfield, Nev., where they will reside. The Schaeffers traded their property on Crescent avenue to G. W. McLane for the latter's Howard automobile, and they will go overland to Goldfield.

After Muletalk.—Bob E. Hunsaker and Al Melhase were busily engaged this morning in lightening into an automobile a cargo of provisions, hunting and fishing paraphernalia, etc. They announced that they are going out for deer.

To Rogue River.—A hunting party consisting of T. G. McHattan, Carey Ramsby, Jack Furber and Jim Thomson will leave in the latter's car early tomorrow for a ten day's trip in the Rogue River country. The hunters will visit Crater Lake on the way over. While McHattan is away his jewelry store will be looked after by H. H. Graham, a recent arrival from Mississippi.

Beat It, Dealer.—A member of the Retail Grocers Association chanced to see a list of supplies this forenoon that nearly caused heart failure. He thought Klamath Falls was to have another grocery store. Great was his rejoicing when he learned that the list was simply a notation of supplies for the commissary car which a party of local hunters will take with them on their hunting trip to Rogue River Thursday morning. In the party will be Fred Houston, Allen Sloan, J. E. Hodge, Clarence Underwood, Dr. Hamilton and Harry Ackley. The hunters will go in Dr. Hamilton's car. Houston's car will run as a grub-wagon going over, and used as a freighter to haul the deer coming home.

To Build Bungalow.—A permit was granted by the council last night to Marion Barnes for the construction of a modern bungalow on lot 5, block 41 of First Addition. Veghte & Co. are the architects.

Laundry Changes Hands.—The Klamath Falls steam laundry has again gone into the hands of D. B. Campbell. Mr. Campbell Monday closed a deal whereby E. P. Bittinger disposed of his interest to him.

Eating at regular intervals is more important for good digestion than the number of times each day or the quantity, as these must be governed by the circumstances.

BURDENED WITH A LOAD OF GREENBACKS, AD AND TOM JONES ARE IN LOS ANGELES, TALKING FIGHT

United Press Service
LOS ANGELES, July 29.—Displaying a big roll of bills, Ad Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, arrived here today. They reiterate their statement that Wolgast wants to bet Champion Willie Ritchie $25,000 on a match.

"We will bet $20,000 even that Ad will win," said Jones, "and $5,000 at reasonable odds that Wolgast will knock Ritchie out."

Locally it is predicted that if they will post their money Ritchie will accept.

Wolgast says he cannot fight before October because of an injury to his hand.

To the Public

This is to advise you that the co-partnership heretofore existing between D. B. Campbell and E. P. Bittinger, and working under the name of the Klamath Falls Steam Laundry, has been dissolved by mutual consent. The business has been taken over and will be continued by D. B. Campbell, the owner, and all accounts due the company are to be paid to him.

LODGE IS OUT OF THE RODEO

STOCK OWNED BY THE ELKS LODGE IS TRANSFERRED TO THE ASSOCIATION—WILL BE SOLD TO LODGE MEMBERS

A transfer of the interest of Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1247 in the Elks Rodeo to the Rodeo Amusement Association was effected at a meeting of the directors of the latter organization Monday. All the stock is now in the hands of the association, the lodge disposing of its interest.

The stock is to be sold to the members of the Elks Lodge, and not more than five shares will be sold to a member. With the assets of the association, the shares are at present worth twenty per cent more than par, say the directors, but they will be sold to the Elks for $10 a share.

The property of the association is today worth $1,850, in addition to an expenditure of $300 for lumber used in improvement work at the grounds.
